St Mellion School Pupils, ca 1957

Dave Joslin has sent in another photograph that will be of interest to many. It is the St Mellion C. P. School photo from ca 1957 and includes several pupils who lived in Pillaton (and one or two who still do!).

Names for many of those in the frame are written on the reverse of the printed photo and are shown below. There are a few gaps though, so if you can help fill those in, or provide any further information about the photo or the children in it, please contact the web site using the link at bottom of any page.
