MINUTES

The minutes of 7th December 2021 Council meeting were accepted unanimously after inserting the word playground under matters arising paragraph c).

MATTERS ARISING

- a) The Council were informed that Cornwall Planning office had written to Bush farm owners that a breach of planning control had taken place and that the owners had been sent a warning letter. Councillor Johnson believed that Mr Renfree was applying for planning permission for camping.
- b) Cllr Johnson informed the meeting that a grant from the solar farm in the sum of £9,000 had been applied for and that the aim was to purchase a see saw, a roundabout and monkey bars, the cost of which would be some £12,000 as indicated by suppliers. No contract would be placed before the full funding had been achieved.

PLANNING APPLICATIONS. none

20MPH SPEED RESTRICTION

The Council agreed to support the move to create a 20MPH speed limit for all villages in Cornwall although doubt was expressed about the effectiveness of the limit.

NEIGHBOURHOOD DEVELOPMENT PLAN

The Council agreed not to proceed with the formation of a Neighbourhood Development Plan.

PAYMENTS

The Council agreed the following payments;£220 rental to Pillaton CIO,£ 338 to Cllr Ley as reimbursement for purchase of lap top and software,£45 to A. Inglefield for play park inspection and £250 to R. Hoskin for grass cutting.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The Chairman thanked Cllr Ley for purchasing the laptop and organising the Zoom meeting. Cllr Ley kindly offered to provide training to Councillors on the use of the laptop. It was decided that in due course the laptop should be maintained by the Clerk.
