PILLATON FAMILY FUN DAY

The Pillaton World War One Commemoration Group held its family fun day at the Village Hall on Saturday 13 May to celebrate the bringing of the playing field into village ownership. The event was well attended and fortunately, although rain did set in later, the weather was bright and sunny for the key part of the afternoon. Guest of honour for the afternoon was the High Sheriff of Cornwall, Sarah Coryton.

Pillaton Village News

No. 189 May 2017

This edition of the Village News falls right in the midst of a General Election campaign. Many I suspect will share the, "Not another one!" view of Brenda from Bristol, but for others it can be quite an exciting time. Reputedly the decision to hold an election was only made during a walking holiday in Wales, whilst some will say it has been inevitable since the 23 June referendum last year.

Personally, I believe the 12 September 2016 is far more significant. This was the date the BBC lost the Great British Bake Off to Channel 4. With no World Cup or Olympics in 2017, the BBC summer schedules were looking pretty empty; how better to fill the gap than with a General Election and keep all those correspondents busy.

Now the screen tests have all been done and the contestants carefully selected, each with their own showstopper favourites. To tempt the judges, we have a strong and stable blueberry muffin (always a vicarage favourite), a lemon drizzle cake with a continental twist, an entry of homemade redcurrant jam from a chap who hasn't quite read the rules, the occasional fruitcake on the side; and finally some tasty shortbread from Nicola which is bound to go down well in some parts.

So, there you have it, "On your marks, get set... BAKE," for the 8 June, but who on earth is going to end up with the soggy bottom the following day?

The next copy date is 3 July 2017, - full details page 27.

MINUTES OF PARISH COUNCIL MEETING 4 APRIL 2017

ATTENDANCE Cllrs. Dolley, Martin, Harris, D. Floyd, Warne, S. Floyd and County Councillor D. Pugh.

APOLOGIES Cllr Heap.

DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST None.

PUBLIC FORUM There was one member of the public present.

MINUTES

The minutes of 7th March 2017 Council meeting were accepted unanimously.

MATTERS ARISING

It was agreed that the Council would host a meeting in the Village Hall on April 29th between 1.30 pm and 3.30pm in order to carry out a survey regarding the need for affordable homes for the residents of Pillaton.

FINGER POSTS

The Council resolved to use the grant for repairing sign posts by restoring the sign at Polborder with new finger posts at up to a cost of £1,000.

PLANNING PERMISSION

The Council rejected the planning application for the demolition of a stable building at Leigh farm and the formation of an aviary, on the grounds that the plans for the aviary appeared to be that of a dwelling and did not meet the recommended requirements for an aviary. A recommendation was made that should the new build not be used as an aviary the building should be demolished.

FINANCE None.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The Chairman reported that the playing field had been successfully purchased by the WW1 committee and ownership transferred to the Village Hall.

Concern was expressed regarding pot holes in the parish and Cllr Martin pointed out that any individual could report the pot holes on the Cornwall Council web site and prompt action was normally taken by Cornwall Council to repair them.

Chairman D Dolley

Brian Woollins

Jennifer and the Woollins family would like to thank the Pillaton community, friends, carers and health professionals for their invaluable part in caring for

Brian throughout his long and challenging illness; for their overwhelming support during the last sad weeks, including the many thoughtful messages of condolence and the comforting presence of so many at his funeral. Pillaton is a very special, caring village and the family were so lucky to have to have chosen to settle here 45 years ago at the Old Barn.

FAMILY FUN DAY

The High Sherrif of Cornwall and Peter Johnson perform the official opening

Despite less than perfect weather, with showers later in the afternoon and more persistent rain in the evening, neither spirits nor attendance appear to have been dampened (pardon the pun) for the Family Fun Day. The afternoon session from 3pm, following an official opening by Sarah Coryton of Pentillie Castle, High Sheriff of Cornwall, was supported by enthusiastic families, with all generations represented, enjoying cream teas, bouncy castles and a bungee run, children's games and the face painting. The Prize Draw also did good business and helped towards paying for our event. The cross-over from afternoon to evening was smoothed by the bar provided by the Bull's Head in Callington and Jeremy and Carolyn Dawe's Hog Roast, both of which provided an excellent service and did roaring trade. In the later evening our two local bands provided lively entertainment which was very much appreciated by the large and enthusiastic audience. All in all it was a wonderful way to celebrate the purchase of the village playing field into village ownership, which was completed on 31 March 2017, as a lasting legacy of the losses, sacrifices and enormous impact of the First World War on the small community of Pillaton.

My heartfelt thanks to all who helped make the Family Fun Day such a success, especially as it involved an enormous amount of advance preparation and sheer hard work, before during and after the event. To the long suffering Committee, the additional volunteers who helped whether it was with setting up, running stalls or events, or helping with the mammoth tidy up, the first aiders, and our contractors - thank you to you all. And apologies if I have left anybody out.

A bit of magic

FUTURE EVENTS AND PLANS

With the Playing Field project now complete, and the ambition of creating a lasting legacy achieved, our focus will shift back to commemoration, especially in 2018, the centenary of the last year of this horrific war and the Armistice. But yet to come in 2017 is another of the popular Clay Pigeon Shoots, and a black tie dinner on 21 October 2017 in the (loose) form of a traditional Trafalgar Night Mess Dinner. We hope to publish further details on both events by late June.

Thank you again to all in parish for your support, whether for our fund raising, or attending the Family Fun Day.

On Saturday 25 March the Pillaton Gardening Club held their annual Spring Show at the Village Hall on a beautiful sunny day. Within the Hall, both exhibitors and visitors were greeted by the sight of yellows and pinks and the heady scent of daphne, viburnum and skimmia. Richard Warwick's Magnolia was the biggest and healthiest bloom on show and the daffodil quality and quantity was provided by Christine Dunn who won most points in the Show. The Dan du Plessis Trophy for the most points in the daffodil section to a local parishioner, went to Ian Edwards. Richard Warwick won most points in the shrub section. Jan Simms must be commended on wheeling her pot plants from home to show us how beautiful they were. Altogether, a lovely show to celebrate the joys of Spring. Many thanks to all who supported us. Carole (350063) or Linda (350956) are happy to take any enquiries.

Annual Meeting

March is the month when once again the WI ladies have their annual meeting. This is where in addition to the usual monthly business we elect for the coming year our officials and committee.

This year marked the end of Lesley Allibone's third year as President and she told us how much she has enjoyed this role. I think it is fair to say that all members would say, with no hesitation whatsoever, what a good job Lesley has done for us. Lesley gave a roundup of all the activities that the WI have been involved in during this last year and ended by reciting a humorous piece which went something like this:

Why is a ship called she? - Because there is always a great deal of bustle around her: there is usually a gang of men around her; she has a waist and stays and it takes a lot of paint to keep her looking good; it is not the initial expense that breaks you it is the upkeep; she can be all decked out; it takes an experienced man to handle her correctly; she shows her topsides, hides her bottom and when coming into port always heads for the buoys!

We moved onto the ballot for President. A WI adviser led us in this process and nominations were sought with Lesley being one of these. Not surprisingly she was re-elected for another year. All other officers and committee agreed to remain for another year. This means that Linda Mavin is vice president and programme secretary, Carole Hoskin secretary, Janet Willcocks treasurer and Ann Henderson minutes secretary. The committee are June Hutfield, Patricia Lindsay and Anne Bartlett.

Lesley closed the meeting by thanking everyone for voting her in as president and said she was looking forward to the coming year.

70th Birthday party:

Our WI reached the age of 70 in Feb. 17 so of course a special party was in order. This meant that 40 or so of us, including some past members and husbands, met in the village hall for a very pleasant evening which started with a glass of sherry offered to us by Lesley. This was followed by a "Shirley meal" – I need say no more! The noise level in the hall was quite high I think would be the way to describe it!

After dinner we had the ceremonial cutting of the most beautiful cake by Lesley and Carole. It seemed almost a shame to cut it but we did. The cake was a fruit cake and had been made by Sue Archer and decorated by Helen Edwards.

Lesley then ended by thanking once again, all members for re-electing her. To show her thanks she said that as she could not give everyone a gift she had given each person a raffle ticket for which she had provided prizes. It was a lovely thing to do and very thoughtful of her but then that's Lesley! Eventually the evening ended and we all staggered home full of good food and good cheer.

April

This was a bit déjà vue as Lesley was unable to be with us so Liz Llewellyn Jones chaired the meeting in her place.

One of the topics discussed in the business section was an event being hosted by this WI on June 24th – a four corner day. This means that there will be four different crafts to have a go at during the day and these are quilting, tea bag quilting (yes really!) crochet and jewellery making. The cost is £12 to include tea, coffee and a soup and roll lunch. If you are interested perhaps talk to any committee member to book your place as space is limited.

Our speaker this month was Alison Gribble who demonstrated Caribbean cooking for us. Yes I know food again, but this is WI! Alison is a well known local celebratory having been amongst other things, a judge on a recent Cornish Pasty making competition as shown on ITV SW.

She demonstrated several dishes that we were able to sample and below you will find a couple of her recipes. All the time she was cooking she kept up an enjoyable commentary on all sorts of subjects mostly about her family. She included an anecdote about the time when her son appeared riding a mono-cycle! Why? I do not know but apparently he did!

So recipes below are for lime and coconut chicken and Caribbean cake. Both delicious! Have fun cooking! Oh yes before I forget, watch this space for more cooking news in the next couple of months as we have another demonstration which I think is in June. Ladies, if you would like to come for this then please do. Sorry gentlemen!

Lime and coconut chicken - Marinate chicken pieces in lime juice for 1 – 1.5 hrs. Heat some veg oil in a frying pan or wok and put the chicken in to brown. Add some coconut cream making sure that the creamy top is included. Add chopped spring onions and cook until the meat is done. Enjoy!

Caribbean cake (Alison's version!) - Soak some dried mango and pineapple in hot tea – preferably a fruit tea- for about 1 hr. Melt 3oz butter in a saucepan and add 4oz caster sugar to this and then add the soaked fruit followed by 2 eggs, a small tin pineapple, 2 ozs glacier cherries and 6 ozs SR flour. Stir. Put into a loaf cake tin and then into the oven at 180 fan. Cook for 50/60 mins.

ST PATRICK'S DAY CRAIC

'Bhi craic agus ceol againn' : We had fun and music! Well, I think Paddy would have been pleased to see so many people having a good time at the St. Patrick's Day "do" In the Village Hall on Saturday 18 March. The first community event of 2017 highlighted just how precious an asset the Village Hall is, after the recent closure due to the unforeseen problems when the new floor was laid.

The hall was pretty full, with 41 folk enjoying good company and the excellent food prepared by Shirley Floyd. Irish music filled the air, and some of us joined in, singing along with the Chieftains and other groups the traditional Irish folk songs we know so well.

Thank you all for coming, for wearing green, for donating raffle prizes, for buying raffle tickets and for making the evening such a cheerful and happy occasion. Thanks to your generosity, we made a profit of £290 which will really help with the expenses incurred because of the issues with the new floor.

Sue and I look forward to seeing many of you again on 18 November at the Beaujolais Nouveau evening. More details nearer the date, but we plan a French themed meal, of course accompanied by a glass of Beaujolais Nouveau!

PILLATON SKITTLES LEAGUE 2016/2017

After another successful and enjoyable season the Skittles Presentation Night was held on Saturday 29 April in the Village Hall. There were 36 people in attendance and we enjoyed a roast pork dinner and delicious puddings cooked and served by Shirley & Dave Floyd.

John Stannard did the presentation of the trophies and prizes and this year the shield went to The Knackered Monks with a total of 65 points, this was the first time they had won the shield outright. In second place came the Dare Devils with 58 points. In third place The Mavericks with 49 and

The winning Knackered Monks team

The Hillbillies with 42. The Wooden Spoon this year went to the Wild Indians with 26 points. Prizes were also awarded to the lady with the highest score and Cathy Bowyer won this and received a bottle of wine. There was a tie for the man with the highest score and this went to Paul Brewer and Gary Sims who each received a pack of beer. All three players were from The Knackered Monks team!

John Wheeley took some pictures during the evening and these can be seen on the village website pillaton.org.uk

During the evening Len organised a 'Menu' quiz which was won by the Wild Indians and also a Capital Cities quiz, which was also won by the Wild Indians. They went home with enough chocolate to last them a week.

John has been running the league for the last three years but because of pressure of college work he now has had to resign. We would like to thank him for keeping the league going and for his help and support throughout. The 2017/2018 Skittles League will be taken on by Carole Hoskin, Len & Sue White.

If anybody in the Village would like to join us for a fun evening by playing for one of the existing teams or if you are a group of six or more, you can enter your own team in the League. We play from October through to March on one evening per month and the cost is £2.50 which includes a pasty supper. If you would like to join in please contact either Carole on 350063 or Sue on 350065. We look forward to hearing from you.

The deluge of blooms is fading and falling, encouraged by the lack of rain. Magnolias shatter their blooms across the lawn, whilst the apple trees still buzz with bees and petals are swept upwards in breeze, but this year many of the fruits are already set, thank goodness. This Spring has been the best ever for volume and quantity of bloom, I do hope that heralds a bountiful fruit harvest later.

FRUIT CASE

The beans I planted have disappeared, pigeons and slugs obviously enjoyed them, they were not so keen on the Rainbow chard which will survive, but I fear the courgettes have DOOMED writ large overhead. I have not really bothered with planting much veg this season, because I am moving, and there are other problems to solve. I am content to leave the beds with weed suppressant matting on them and rack up the plants ready to move.

When we moved here, fifteen years ago, I brought 250 different bearded iris cultivars with me; Wilf brought some of his precious Potentilla fruticosa collection too, including one called 'Janet,' another called 'Alice' after his mother. Other plants that are special, naturally moved here too, so when we arrived there were 2 vans, one with household effects and one with garden paraphernalia, but the van with the plants was from a specialist company who usually moved plants for Chelsea, arrived a couple of days beforehand, and the contents were spread out under the shade of the big cedar tree. All had to stay there for a while, and when the house was being attacked with roofers, builders, electricians and plumbers, we got on with the garden.

A lovely local lumberjack, felled the huge leylandi surrounding the garden, sending the brush through an enormous shredder, leaving a mountain of wood chips to use later. The 60' cedar and firs had their canopies raised so we could cut the grass upright without being concussed, and most importantly we had the garden fenced, by the same company who did MOD fencing. Wilf did not believe in constantly repairing cheap panels; fencing had to last... (proper job!), and it has for 15 years and counting. It kept those damn badgers out.

Many of the iris has not survived the wet of the West, but I will take some back to Sussex, a few potentillas will come and a few specials too.

Interesting that plants become friends, with associations, and some trees just have to be planted whichever garden I have, Ginkgo Biloba, as old as time, found in amber and such strange leaves, mine is just getting growing.

My Auntie Kath, who gardened till she was 96, had a front garden full of rose bushes, and I never really took much notice of them as a child, for they were in the front and I loved the sunny back garden with a pond, fish, a purring cat and garden fruit to eat. I learnt much later that each of these roses had been planted for friends loved and lost, including my Nana and Mum. I have some of Aunt Kath's agapanthus, and a plant from my grandfather's oleander, better than family photographs, because they are a living connection with past.

I will be leaving a garden that I have planted and tended with love, some of the planting is repetitious, so what, but the shrubs, camellias, magnolias and local varieties of apples, and the rest are a testament, and I am certainly proud of how my garden has matured. I can honestly say I have spent thousands of pounds and hours on planning, planting and tending my garden, and though I love it dearly must return to my home county, to be near my family, ...to start all over again.

Addendum:

I was filling the bird bath and as I turning the hose off, I noticed the water at the bottom of the gutter drain was rippling. I removed the plastic grid and saw I was right something was trapped. I had thought a newt, but with care I scooped out a very skinny young frog, how long had he been entombed? He was very dark coloured, he was happy to be left near the pond; I will check the others tomorrow. Poor chap he missed the breeding season and all the parties and been on a very restricted diet!

LOOKING FOR THE PEARCE FAMILY

I am hoping readers of the Village News can help. I am tracing my family history and am trying to discover and make contact with cousins I never knew I had. From what I can tell, many of my ancestors (the Pearce family) were born in or around Pillaton, and many were farmers or carpenters.

My father, Ronald Pearce (1922-1981), left England as a young man and died in Singapore, but as a result I never knew my English family apart from his sister, Amy Barnes (1919-2002).

My grandfather, Arthur John Pearce (1884-1931) had three siblings: Albert Edward (1886-?, who I believe married Edith Mallam Rogers); John Breen (1888-1950, married Elsie Florence?); and Horace Voisey (1891-1979, married Ellen?).

My great-grandfather John Breen (1849-1916) had eight siblings: Richard (died aged 5), Voisey, William (died 1932), Richard Breen (d 1944), Thomas Voisey (d 1899), Jane (died as a baby), Sarah (d 1876) and Charles (d 1923). Most of them married and had children.

My email: spearce011@gmail.com, or you can write to S Pearce, 6 The Rickyard, Clifton Reynes, Olney, Bucks MK46 5LQ.
